Problem Gambling Awareness: Every Story Matters

The Nevada Council on Problem Gambling is celebrating 40 years and hosting this very special National Problem Gambling Awareness Month community event!

"Problem Gambling Awareness – Every Story Matters" is open to the public and kicks off our month-long focus on Recovery and all the Stories That Matter!

Special Guests!

William Hung, Entertainer, Motivational Speaker

William Hung gained fame on the third season of "American Idol" in 2004 with his memorable audition of "She Bangs," which led to a career in music and entertainment. He would later become a motivational speaker and ultimately took a job with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department as a Statistical Analyst.

After his entertainment career slowed down, he developed a serious gambling problem that impacted many areas of his life. Join us as William shares his journey from Hong Kong to California, from studying civil engineering to a career in entertainment and law enforcement, and his story of gambling addiction and recovery.

Rory Reid, PhD, LCSW, ICGC-II

William will be joined by Dr. Rory Reid, a Research Psychologist with the UCLA Gambling Studies Program, and Internationally Certified Gambling Counselor to discuss William's recovery journey and how it differs from other concepts of recovery that many are more familiar with. A question-and-answer session with attendees will follow.
